

It's eleven o'clock. Do you know where your pet is?

You'd be amazed at the number of people who don't.

Shocked at the number of people who just let their pets run loose on the streets where other people are walking.

In the parks where children are playing.

In the alleys, where they have nothing to do but get themselves into trouble.

And you'd be disgusted at the number of unwanted animals who have no place to be at 11:00.

Except on their way to a not-so-joyful reunion with their maker.

If you own a pet, take care of it.

If you're thinking about buying one, make damn sure you know your responsibilities and take them seriously.
